

FOREX MASTERY®

Smart Strategies ... by the Masters

Finally, you have a professionally organized workshop for Forex traders that deliver on its promises.

Forex Mastery is designed to deliver powerful currency trading strategies in a live, interactive setting. You will witness first-hand how these strategies are put into action with on-site Live Forex Trading. We will demonstrate Forex currency trading techniques, strategies and methods that you learn. You will be able to create an income stream from world's largest currency trading market by using powerful yet simple strategies designed to limit risk while increasing the probability of winning.

This is your only chance to an exclusive education to trade live with Kathy Lien, world renowned currency strategist, head of DailyFX.com and internationally published author of Day Trading the currency Market and Millionaire Traders: How to Beat Wall Street at Its Own Game.

OVERVIEW

In this full-day FX training session, Kathy will teach you high probability short term trading strategies. It's for traders who like to be in and out of the market within hours and medium term strategies for traders who like to go for bigger moves and hold positions for a few days. Each of her trading strategies comes with clear cut rules.

Kathy will also be putting her strategies into action by trading live. This is an opportunity not to be missed.

TESTIMONIALS

“I want to thank you for a fabulous weekend!! I was struck by your generosity, your intelligence, and your passion. It was a gift.”

...Richard Powell, NY

“Your newscast has very thoughtful information - this opens up a whole new world of fundamental insight and trades. Thanks for the tip on the EUR/GBP I got in last night and was in the money this morning !”

...Tom Draney, Arizona

“Thank you so much for everything last weekend! My head is still swimming with everything we went over!”

...Shawn Hughey, NY

“I watched your stuff on the trader’s webinar workshop and felt your stuff and the whole workshop was fantastic.”

...Brian Reilly, Australia

“Just a quick note to commend you both (and Jamie) on the material and delivery at the NYC Traders Workshop. It is obvious why you are sought out in the market - you not only know your stuff but have the ability to deliver and explain in a very clear and concise manner. I know that my trading will improve exponentially as I customize your ideas and strategies to my trading style. I wish you continued success. Thanks again and regards.”

... Ray Jimenez, South Florida

Ms Kathy Lien

is an Internationally Published Author and Chief Strategist of DailyFX.com, one of the world's most popular online websites for currency research.

ABOUT YOUR TRAINER

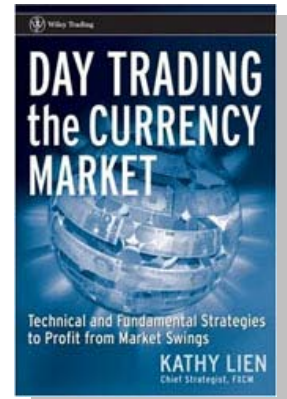

As Chief Currency Strategist at FXCM, Kathy is responsible for providing research and analysis for DailyFX, the research arm of FXCM. She also co-edits the BK Forex Advisor, an Investopedia.com Premium Service with Boris Schlossberg – one of the few investment advisory letters focusing strictly on the 2 Trillion/day FX market.

Kathy is a "Trader First, Analyst Second." She publishes both technical and fundamental research reports, market commentaries and trading strategies. A seasoned FX analyst and trader, Kathy has direct interbank experience. Prior to joining FXCM, Kathy worked in JPMorgan Chase's Cross Markets and Foreign Exchange Trading groups using both technical and fundamental analysis to trade FX spot and options. She also has experience trading a number of products outside of FX, including interest rate derivatives, bonds, equities and futures. She has taught seminars around the world on day and swing trading the currency market.

Kathy is also one of the authors of Investopedia's Forex Education section and has written for Tradingmarkets.com, the Asia Times Online, Stocks & Commodities Magazine, MarketWatch, ActiveTrader Magazine, Currency Trader, Futures Magazine and SFO. She is frequently quoted by Bloomberg, Reuters, the Wall street Journal, and the International Herald Tribune and has appeared on CNN, CNBC, CBS and Bloomberg Radio. She has also hosted trader chats on EliteTrader, eSignal and FXStreet, sharing her expertise in both technical and fundamental analysis.

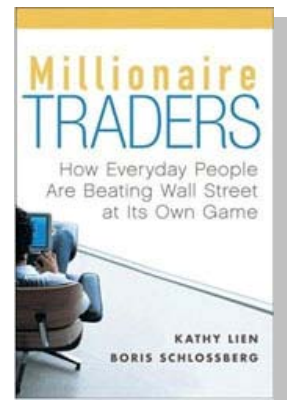

Many people have asked how Kathy has managed to achieve so much at such a young age, but if you consider that she graduated New York University's Stern School of Business at the age of 18 in 1999, she actually has a wealth of experience.
